Privacy notice

The Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 allows the collection of personal information to assess your eligibility to be issued with a blue/exemption card.

Information will be provided to Queensland Police, and may be provided to police, courts, prosecuting authorities or other authorised agencies as part of the screening process. Information may also be given to:

- certain disciplinary bodies to obtain relevant disciplinary information; and/or
- your employer, any supervisory body, or other person you have authorised to discuss your application on your behalf.

Personal information will only be provided to other persons or agencies with your permission or where required by law.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

A registered teacher means a person registered as a teacher under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005.

A police officer means a person engaged by the Queensland Police Service as a police officer under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

After you have submitted an application for an exemption card, your application details will be forwarded to the Queensland College of Teachers or the Queensland Police Service, where appropriate.

Confirmation of your status as a registered teacher or police officer will be sought from the relevant agency and whether there is a need to undertake further employment screening in relation to your application.

If you have indicated that you are a registered teacher:

The Queensland College of Teachers may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening where the Queensland College of Teachers is aware of any police information in relation to you.

If you have indicated that you are a police officer:

The Queensland Police Service may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening about a police officer where the Queensland Police Service is aware that the applicant has been charged with an offence and the charge has not been finally dealt with.

No personal information about the specifics of a person's criminal history will be provided as part of this information exchange.

*Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

^Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

For more information about the blue card system and your obligations go to www.bluecard.qld.gov.au.
